

Centaur Asia Pacific's Regional Get-Together

Singapore: Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia: On the back of the Asian Golf Industry Federation Annual International Summit, Centaur Asia Pacific conducted a combined Regional Sales Meeting at Kuala Lumpur's M Resort & Hotel.

The sales teams from Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia and Australia were joined by representatives from six of the company's principal brands.

Held under the theme 'Telling Stories', the meeting was conceived by Centaur Asia Pacific Founder and Owner Danny Potter to give the sales teams a deeper understanding of the brands they represent.

The event featured Kneale Diamond from CapillaryFlow, Richard Allen from EcoBunker, Potter representing LOKSAND, James Gordon from Profile Golf, Mark Donohue from Rain Bird and Bahman Doaeian from Soil Scout.

Potter said: "We are very pleased to have our principals join us for this meeting and share their stories with our teams. It has been a valuable opportunity for everyone to learn more about the brands we represent, the people behind them and what makes each one unique.

"I believe this understanding will help our teams better communicate the value of these brands to our customers."

The Regional Sales Meeting proved to be a fruitful gathering, with meaningful discussions, shared experiences and stronger connections between Centaur and its principals.

"Building on the success of the meeting, Centaur Asia Pacific looks forward to strengthening these partnerships and continuing to provide practical solutions and professional support to the golf and turf management industry across the region," added Potter.

Centaur Asia Pacific, CapillaryFlow, EcoBunker, Profile Golf, Rain Bird and Soil Scout are all members of the Asian Golf Industry Federation.
